

Bathroom room shell worksheet

Measure first, then test-fit actual products. Printable U.S. Letter worksheet.

Project / room: _____ Date: _____ Measured by: _____

1. Finished shell

Finished inside width: _____ in Finished inside length: _____ in Ceiling height: _____ in Measure at several points. Note wall build-up, tile, trim, out-of-square walls, soffits, radiators, ducts, and chases.

2. Door, casing, and entry

Door leaf width: _____ in Clear opening: _____ in Swing: inward / outswing / pocket / other: _____

Casing and trim projection: _____ in Threshold: _____ in Pocket wall feasibility / blocking notes: _____

3. Windows and privacy

Window width: _____ in Height: _____ in Sill height: _____ in Privacy / covering needs: _____

Relation to wet zone, splash, exhaust, and trim: _____

4. Plumbing and wet wall

Stack / vent location: _____ Drains: _____ Supplies: _____

Shutoffs / cleanouts / access panels: _____

5. Structure and services

Joist direction: _____ Slab / structural walls: _____ Soffits / ducts / chases: _____

Electrical: outlets / switches / lights / exhaust / duct route / panel constraints: _____

6. Household priorities

Users and routines: _____

Tub need: yes / no / unsure Storage priority: _____ Privacy priority: _____ Adaptability priorities: _____

7. Actual fixture information

Vanity model / width / depth: _____ Cut-sheet link: _____

Toilet model / projection / rough-in: _____ Cut-sheet link: _____

Tub or shower model / envelope / entry: _____ Cut-sheet link: _____

8. Unresolved verification questions

Question / unknown: _____

Person or trade responsible: _____ By when: _____ Answer / source: _____

Question / unknown: _____

Person or trade responsible: _____ By when: _____ Answer / source: _____